

Something Borrowed

33ft Vintage Cruiser

12

Passengers

$550

Minimum Hourly Rate

Sydney

Location

Something Borrowed is the ideal boat for private cruises around Sydney Harbour; it has a timeless appeal. This European-designed boat, with her classic teak decks, exude vintage Hollywood flair.

Something Borrowed is a 33ft private hire option that caters to all tastes and events in Sydney. With its twelve passenger capacity, it is ideal for small parties or couples on day trips, romantic cruises, photo sessions, and opulent transfers. Enjoy a unique day or night to commemorate a significant occasion, or take a luxurious boat ride across Sydney's waterways.

Designed for speed, Something Borrowed will get you where you need to go quickly. Alternatively, take your time and enjoy a memorable day sailing around Sydney Harbor's iconic sites. From an unparalleled vantage point, sail by the Opera House, Harbour Bridge, Cockatoo Island, Luna Park, and more to see the best of Sydney.

Something Borrowed is equipped with a swim platform, for convenient entry and exit from the water. Enjoy a picnic and a bottle of champagne away from the bustle as you sail to hidden swimming spots on Something Borrowed.

Features

- BYO Food
- BYO Drinks
- Sound System with Bluetooth
- Swim Platform
- Swim Ladder
- Esky
- Offshore Survey

Preferred Wharves

Something Borrowed can use most commercial wharves in Sydney Harbour and the Spit.

If the wharf is privately managed by a restaurant or yacht club the client must have permission before the boat will pull up to the wharf.

Day Charter Rates

Includes skipper

January to October Until 9pm

$550 per hour (Min 2 hours)

January to October From 9pm

$625 per hour (Min 2 hours)

Wharf fees - $50 per visit

BYO Food & Drinks

No surcharge - client to provide own plates, cups, cutlery, etc.

Public Holidays incur a surcharge.